INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Trustees
Immaculata University
Immaculata, Pennsylvania

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Immaculata University, which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

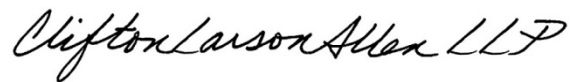

Board of Trustees
Immaculata University

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Immaculata University as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter

As described in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, errors resulting in an overstatement of unrestricted net assets, an understatement of temporarily restricted net assets, and an overstatement of permanently restricted net assets previously reported as of June 30, 2015, were discovered during the current year. Accordingly, certain amounts have been restated in the 2015 consolidated financial statements now presented, and adjustments have been made to unrestricted, temporarily restricted and permanently restricted net assets as of June 30, 2014. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

NOTE 1 OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Description of Operations

Immaculata University (the University) is a Catholic institution of higher education founded for women in 1920 by the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (the Congregation). The University offers undergraduate and graduate programs directed primarily toward liberal and professional education. Effective fall 2005, the University expanded its market in higher education to include both men and women in its traditional undergraduate program. The University offers courses in distance and online instruction in addition to on-campus and off-site graduate and undergraduate programs serving the adult learner.

The University, to attain the goal of developing the whole person of any faith within a Catholic community, encourages the student to see in liberal education an integrative process contributing to the formation of a truly educated person: value-oriented and committed to seeking the truth, promoting justice, and fostering peace.

Principles of Consolidation

The financial statements of the University include the net assets and operations of Enserv, Inc. (Enserv), a Pennsylvania nonprofit corporation that was organized to build, own and operate a sewage treatment facility (the Plant). Certain members of Enserv's board of directors are employed by or affiliated with the University, which provides Enserv with funds for operation and maintenance of the Plant. There were no amounts due from (to) Enserv as of June 30, 2016 and 2015. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation. For additional information about Enserv refer to Note 14.

Basis of Presentation

The University's consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for not-for-profit organizations.

Net assets and revenues, expenses, gains, and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the University and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Unrestricted net assets – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met either by actions of the University and/or the passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the University. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the University to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for general or specific purposes.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2016 AND 2015

Revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on investments are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation or by law. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets (i.e., the donor-stipulated purpose has been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets. Clarifications of donor intentions are presented as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets in the year known.

Operation and maintenance of plant, depreciation, interest expense, and amortization of bond discount and issue costs are allocated to the functional classifications based on square footage.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include interest-bearing money market accounts and short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less.

Contributions

Contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized as revenues in the appropriate category of net assets in the period received. Conditional promises to give are not recognized until they become unconditional, that is, when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Contributions of assets other than cash are recorded at their estimated fair value at the date of the gift. Contributions to be received after one year are discounted using an appropriate discount rate commensurate with the period of collection. Amortization of discounts is included in contribution revenue in accordance with donor-imposed restrictions. An allowance for uncollectible contributions receivable is provided based upon management's judgment, including such factors as prior collection history, type of contribution, and nature of fund-raising activity.

Investments

Investments in fixed income and marketable equity securities are stated at fair value based on quoted market prices. Investments acquired by gift are recorded at the fair value on the date the gift was received. Cost of investments sold is determined on the first-in, first-out method, and investment transactions are recognized on the trade date. Net realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments are reflected in the consolidated statements of activities.

Deposits with Trustees

Deposits with bond trustees consist of debt service and reserve funds with a market value of $4,416,387 and $4,414,038 at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. These funds are invested in fixed income securities, and will be used for debt service.

IMMACULATA UNIVERSITY
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2016 AND 2015

NOTE 1 OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Property, Plant, and Equipment

The properties, campus, and buildings known as Immaculata University are owned by the Congregation, except for Alumnae Hall, Gabriele Library, Lillian P. Lettiere Center, Draper Walsh Stadium, and various athletic facilities (which are owned by the University). By resolution of the Congregation's Executive Council, the campus and buildings are made available and all risks and rewards of ownership are transferred to the University for educational purposes and have been included in property, plant, and equipment on the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position. Improvements made to these properties and buildings are owned by the University. Plant assets are stated at cost or, in the case of gifts, at fair value at date of gift, net of accumulated depreciation. Repairs and maintenance costs are expensed as incurred.

Plant assets are capitalized and depreciated using the straight-line method according to the following schedule:

Buildings	20 to 50 years
Building improvements	5 to 50 years
Furniture, equipment, and library books	3 to 20 years

Depreciation expense for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015 was $4,225,331 and $4,432,810 respectively.

Costs of purchased software are capitalized along with internal and external costs incurred during the application development stage (i.e., from the time the software is selected until it is ready for use). Capitalized costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over the expected life of the software. Computer software maintenance costs are expensed as incurred.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Tuition and Student Financial Aid

Tuition revenue is recognized in the period the related academic services are rendered. The University provides financial aid to eligible students, generally in a "package" that includes loans, compensation under work-study programs, and/or grant and scholarship awards. The loans are provided primarily through programs of the U.S. government (including direct and guaranteed loan programs) under which the University is responsible only for certain administrative duties. The grants and scholarships include awards provided from gifts and grants from private donors, income earned on endowment funds restricted for student aid, and University funds.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2016 AND 2015

NOTE 1 OPERATIONS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

Income Taxes

The University is qualified as a not-for-profit organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended. Accordingly, the University is not subject to income taxes except to the extent it has taxable income from activities that are not related to its exempt purpose. The University recognizes the effect of income tax positions, if any, only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. No provision for income taxes was required for fiscal year 2016 or 2015.

Leases

The University leases certain facilities and equipment. Certain of these leases contain rent escalations and renewal options, and require payment for taxes, insurance, and maintenance. Rent expense is charged to operations as incurred.

Nonoperating Activities

The University considers endowment gifts, capital campaign contributions, net realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments in excess of the University's spending rate to be nonoperating activities.

Asset Retirement Obligations

An asset retirement obligation is a legal obligation to perform an asset retirement activity in which the timing and/or method of settlement are conditional on a future event that may or may not be within the control of the entity. The University records a liability to perform the asset retirement activity.

Reclassifications

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2015 amounts to conform to the 2016 presentation.

Subsequent Events

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the University has evaluated events and transactions through October 21, 2016, the date the consolidated financial statements were issued.

JUNE 30, 2016 AND 2015

NOTE 2 RESTATEMENT

Four errors resulting in a net overstatement of unrestricted net assets, understatement of temporarily restricted net assets and overstatement of permanently restricted net assets previously reported as of June 30, 2014, were discovered during the current year.

Costs related to the annual subscription for certain periodicals were capitalized and included in furniture, equipment and library books in prior periods. It was determined these items do not have a useful life beyond one year and should have been expensed as these costs were incurred.

The University received a pledge in fiscal year 2013 that was not properly recorded. The University had been recording cash payments on the pledge as contribution revenue in the year payment was received rather than recording a contribution receivable and related revenues at the discounted present value in the year the pledge was received by the University.

The University did not historically defer revenue for courses within the College of Graduate Studies Masters and Doctoral programs which started prior to June 30. In the current year, management determined this adjustment should be made at year end in order to ensure amounts from these terms are reported in the correct periods.

During the year it was discovered that the University recorded contributions made in prior years to a University established endowment fund to permanently restricted revenues rather than to unrestricted revenue.

The following consolidated financial statement line items for 2015 were restated:

NOTE 4 FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The fair values of the University's financial instruments represent management's best estimates of the amounts that would be received to sell those assets or that would be paid to transfer those liabilities in an orderly transaction between market participants at that date. Those fair value measurements maximize the use of observable inputs. However, in situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability at the measurement date, the fair value measurement reflects the University's own judgments about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. Those judgments are developed by the University based on the best information available in the circumstances.

Common and preferred stocks, corporate bonds, U.S. government obligations, money market, and mutual funds are determined using quoted market prices at the reporting date multiplied by the quantity on hand.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs of valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to measurements involving significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. Level 1 assets and liabilities include debt and equity securities that are traded in an active exchange market.

Level 2: Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities. Level 3 assets and liabilities include financial instruments whose value is determined using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, or similar techniques, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant management judgment or estimation. The University did not have any Level 3 holdings as of June 30, 2016 or 2015.

Short-Term Assets and Liabilities

The carrying amount of student accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximates fair value due to the short maturity of these financial instruments.

Loans Receivable

Loans receivable are carried at face value less an allowance for doubtful accounts. A reasonable estimate of the fair value of loans receivable under student loan programs is not practical to determine because loans may only be assigned to the federal government or its designees.

Debt

Information about the fair value of bonds payable is disclosed in Note 7 to the consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 5 CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVABLE

The University records unconditional promises to give as contributions receivable. Contributions due beyond one year are discounted to the present value using discount rates ranging from 1.2% to 1.8%. Contributions receivable, net, consist primarily of pledges to a capital campaign to support the renovation and construction of campus facilities and are summarized as follows as of June 30, 2016 and 2015:

	2016	2015
Unconditional Promises Expected to be Collected:

The University has a loan agreement with the Congregation in the amount of $7,000,000 to be used for general purposes of the University. The principal outstanding as of June 30, 2016 and 2015 was $3,262,500 and $6,525,000, respectively. The University was required to pay interest on the unpaid balance on a semiannual basis, at a rate based on the current ten-year Treasury note. The note was renegotiated and effective April 14, 2014, the interest rate became fixed at 2% with payments due on a semi-annual basis. The loan is repayable by October 15, 2023, providing certain covenants are met.

Campus renovation projects and dining facility renovations have been partially financed by a loan from a University contractor. The total unamortized portion of the financial commitment of $300,000 was paid by the University in February 2013. In fiscal year ending 2013, the contractor increased an existing financial commitment to the University to assist in the renovation of dining facilities and purchases of equipment. In January 2016, the University changed contractors and the total unamortized portion of the financial commitment of $174,000 was paid by the University. A loan was extended from the newly appointed contractor in January 2016 and the commitment is paid to the contractor on a straight-line basis over the number of months remaining until June 2020. The unamortized balance as of June 30, 2016 and 2015 was $202,492 and $193,292, respectively.

A line of credit provided by Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company (M&T Bank) providing for borrowings up to $6,500,000 at interest rates of one-month LIBOR rounded up to the nearest 1/16th of one percent plus two hundred seventy-five basis points. The line was renewed on December 17, 2015 with borrowings up to $3,250,000 and expires December 17, 2016. There were no borrowings in fiscal year 2016 or 2015 and no balance outstanding at June 30, 2016 or June 30, 2015.

The University has various capital lease agreements for pianos, computer hardware, and maintenance equipment. The aggregate outstanding balance was $674,696 and $899,720, with an average effective rate of interest of 3.72% and 4.3% as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The leases expire through 2019 and are repayable ratably over the term.

A note payable from Enserv to the University was established as consideration for the construction costs paid by the University for the Plant. The total amount outstanding was $344,133 at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively (Note 14).

Less Unamortized Discount, Series of 2013 S3	(86,197)	(91,944)
	$ 39,380,384	$ 39,831,891

The Series of 1998 Bonds were issued to provide advance refunding of the University's Series of 1991 Bonds and to provide financing for the improvements and renovations to Villa Maria, Lourdes, and Nazareth Halls. On December 15, 2010, the University, through the Chester County Health and Education Facilities Authority, entered into a tax-exempt loan agreement (2010 Loan) with PNC Bank, the proceeds of which, along with the 1998 Bonds Debt Service Reserve Fund, were used to redeem all outstanding 1998 Bonds. On December 16, 2013, the University, through the Chester County Health and Education Facilities Authority, issued Series 2013 S3 Bonds in the amount of $13,410,000 used as a current refunding of the 2010 Loan and to terminate the interest rate swap. Series 2013 S3 are variable rate bonds maturing in 2030 and bear interest at a weekly rate enhanced by a direct-pay letter of credit. The letter of credit is for an amount up to $13,612,068 and expires January 15, 2017. The expiration date of the letter of credit may be extended at the sole discretion of the Bank. The letter of credit may also be replaced with an acceptable alternative letter of credit within certain timeframes. During fiscal year ended June 30, 2016, interest rates ranged between 0.03% and 0.45%.

Concurrently, on December 16, 2013, a fixed-rate bond in the amount of $5,700,000 was issued through the Chester County Health and Educational Facilities Authority (2013 Series MM2) to provide financing for the west campus student residence facilities. The 2013 Series MM2 bonds mature in 2041 and bear a fixed-interest rate of 7.0%. A Debt Service Reserve fund was established in the amount of $570,000.

The Series 2005 Bonds were issued to provide financing for campus renovations and upgrades including new buildings, athletic facilities, renovation of Alumnae, Marian and DeChantal Halls, and various supporting infrastructure initiatives. The Series 2005 Bonds mature in varying principal amounts ranging from $350,000 in 2009 to the final maturity of $1,575,000 in 2037. The interest rates on the Series 2005 Bonds are fixed rates that range from 5.125% to 5.750% over the term of the bonds. A Debt Service Reserve Fund was established in the amount of $1,670,350.

Under the bond indentures, the University is subject to certain covenants, which among other things require the University to meet certain financial and debt service coverage and liquidity ratios. The University was not aware of any noncompliance with such requirements as of June 30, 2016.

Principal and interest payments on bonds payable at June 30, 2016 are as follows:

	Principal	Interest	Total
Year Ending June 30:

	$ 39,715,000	$ 26,205,622	$ 65,920,622

Interest expense on all borrowings was $1,952,558 and $1,904,970 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. No interest costs were capitalized for the year ended June 30, 2016. Interest costs capitalized for the year ended June 30, 2015 was $169,375, net of interest earnings of and $493.

The fair value of the University's debt at June 30, 2016 and 2015 was $41,402,542 and $41,844,102, respectively, determined by using Level 2 observable inputs, including quoted prices from similar securities based upon maturity and the credit rating for each series of bond.

NOTE 8 ASSET RETIREMENT OBLIGATIONS

The University is required to recognize the cost associated with the eventual remediation and abatement of asbestos and other regulated substances located within the construction of the University's property, plant and equipment. The cost of the abatement was estimated by management based on knowledge of remaining asbestos within existing buildings and contractor estimates for remediation integrated with management's future remediation plans. The conditional asset retirement obligation was $2,217,125 and $2,232,657 at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

For the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, the University recognized an additional $68,989 and $65,029, respectively, for accretion of the liability. The University settled $84,521 of the asset retirement obligation due to remediation of asbestos that was performed during fiscal year 2016.

Term Endowment	289,000	101,000
	$ 14,486,632	$ 9,615,095

Permanently restricted net assets total $8,699,517 and $7,423,100 as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. These consist of multi-year pledges for the creation and establishment of permanently restricted endowed funds and endowment funds of $8,199,242 and $7,423,100 as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The income from these investments is principally expendable for scholarships.

NOTE 10 PENSION PLAN

The University has a defined-contribution pension plan provided through the Teachers Insurance Annuity Association covering eligible personnel. Effective July 1, 2015, the University reduced the pension contribution from 7% of salaries of participating employees to 5%. Total pension expense was $650,146 and $1,003,731 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

NOTE 11 CONTRIBUTED SERVICES

The University recognizes contributed services revenue and expenses for uncompensated faculty and administrators who are members of the Congregation and contribute their services to the University. The value of contributed services, which is based on prevailing wage rates, has been estimated to be $2,631,311 and $2,698,189 in 2016 and 2015, respectively, and has been reduced by payments made for the stipends and maintenance of members of the religious community in the amount of $1,409,949 and $1,348,358, respectively, which includes $272,320 and $291,039 of fringe benefits, respectively.

NOTE 12 ENDOWMENT

The University's endowment consists of approximately 49 individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board of Trustees (Board) to function as endowments. Net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Board to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

IMMACULATA UNIVERSITY
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2016 AND 2015

Interpretation of Relevant Law

The University classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment; (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment; and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the University in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by relevant law. Pennsylvania law permits the Board to make an election to annually appropriate for expenditure a selected percentage between 2% and 7% of the fair value of the assets related to donor-restricted endowment funds averaged over a period of three or more preceding years, provided the Board has determined that such percentage is consistent with the long-term preservation of the real value of such assets.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters

The University has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets (donor-restricted and Board-designated) that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Under these policies, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that exceed the price and yield results of various indices while assuming a moderate level of investment risk.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives

To satisfy its long-term rate of return objectives, the University relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The investments are distributed to several asset classes and investment styles to minimize investment risk through diversification and provide enhanced investment performance.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives Relate to Spending Policy

The University has appropriated for distribution each year 4%–6% of its funds based on the average market value over the prior three years preceding June 30. Accordingly, over the long term, the University expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to grow at an average rate of 2% to 6% annually. The actual rate of spending for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015 was 5.5% and 5.7%, respectively.

Funds with Deficiencies

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the original gift amount maintained as permanently restricted net assets. These deficiencies resulted from unfavorable market fluctuations that occurred shortly after the investment of new permanently restricted contributions. There were no deficiencies of this nature at June 30, 2016 or 2015.

NOTE 13 COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Energy Commitments

The University, in the normal course of operations, enters into purchase commitments for electricity and natural gas, which includes market pricing measures and, in certain instances, contains options for additional quantities. Energy commitments for electricity for the delivery period July 1, 2016 through December 31, 2017 were $683,599 as of June 30, 2016. Energy commitments for natural gas for the delivery period July 1, 2016 through July 31, 2018 were $333,633 as of June 30, 2016.

Noncancelable Operating Leases

The University has several noncancelable operating leases, primarily for automobiles, that expire over the next three years. Expenses for operating leases during 2016 and 2015 were $133,656 and $237,558, respectively. Future minimum lease payments under noncancelable operating leases are $26,209 in 2017 and $5,469 in 2018.

Litigation

The University is involved in legal actions that have arisen in the normal course of operations. The University believes that the outcome of the cases will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position of the University.

U.S. Department of Education Program Review

The U.S. Department of Education (ED) performed a program review in December 2011 of the University's compliance with certain federal student financial assistance requirements, and issued its preliminary program review report on August 14, 2013. The preliminary findings included several areas in which ED had required the University to review and revise its policies and procedures. ED also required the University to conduct file reviews for the 2010 -2011 and 2011-2012 award years for students enrolled in the University's accelerated programs who received Direct Loans and/or Pell grants; and for reported disbursement dates for Pell and Direct Loans for all recipients of those federal awards. The University responded to the preliminary program review report on April 29, 2014. The final report was issued by ED on July 24, 2015. Total liabilities due from the University were determined to be $12,313 and were remitted to ED on August 14, 2015.

NOTE 14 RELATED ENTITY

As described in Note 1, the University's financial statements include a related entity, Enserv. Enserv was created by an agreement dated June 1, 1993, between the University and Camilla Hall (Camilla), an infirmary and life residency operated by the Congregation. Enserv was organized to build, own and operate the Plant to be used exclusively by Camilla and the University.

Under the terms of the agreement, Camilla and the University agreed to pay to Enserv a portion of construction costs to build the Plant. The University contributed 70% and Camilla 30% towards the costs of construction. In consideration for these payments, Enserv issued a note payable to Camilla in the amount of $344,133 (Note 6) which is included in notes payable in the consolidated statements of financial position and a subvention certificate to the University. No payments are to be made related to either the note payable or subvention certificate by Enserv until dissolution of Enserv and prior payment by Enserv to all other creditors.

In addition to construction costs, Camilla and the University agreed to pay Enserv for operation and maintenance costs related to the Plant based on the same contribution percentages used for construction costs.
